The Honorable Val Peterson,
Administrator

Dear Governor Peterson:

I shall be very happy to present an intelligence summary at the White House Mayors' Conference at 10:10 a.m. on December 14. It will probably be appropriate for me to use the same general approach which I used for the Governors' Conference earlier this year, and I shall look forward to meeting with this important group of administrators.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The White House Mayors' Conference, which was announced at the Cabinet meeting October 9, has been called by the President for December 14 and 15. The purpose is to discuss national security problems with the chief executives of cities having over 75,000 population.

The President urges the participation of members of the Cabinet and heads of agencies most concerned with national security. The briefings of the mayors will not be complete without you. We should greatly appreciate it if you would talk on the subject of "Intelligence Summary," and participate in a brief discussion following. The meeting will be closed to the press.

We have planned for you to appear on the program at 10:10 a.m. on December 14. The meeting will be in the auditorium of the State Department, 21st and Virginia Avenue, Northwest.

Sincerely,
